

Matthew G. Clarke, M.D.

Employment: •Howard University Hospital, Washington, DC. 5/04 – present.

- Orthopedic surgical resident, PGY IV.
- Interests include Sports Medicine, Trauma.

Education: •St. George's High School, Kingston, Jamaica.

- graduated 2nd in class (6/96).

•University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, MI. 9/96-5/99

- graduated cum laude w/ B.Sc. in Biology (3.83 GPA).
- class honors: 96/97, 97/98, 98/99.

•Dartmouth Medical School, Hanover, NH. 8/99-5/01.

- class honors: Anatomy, Biochemistry.

•Brown Medical School, Providence, RI. 6/01- 5/04.

- one of fifteen students selected to spend academic years at Dartmouth and clinical years at Brown as part of a joint medical program.
- class honors: Orthopedic Surgery (Brown University)

Activities: •University of Michigan:

- (i) Pre-Med. Club, 96-99 (President, 99).
- (ii) Caribbean People's Association, 96-99, (President, 97)

•Dartmouth Medical School:

- (i)SNMA (President, 01)
 - organized numerous community service projects dedicated to increasing awareness of Minority Health Concerns and encouraging other minorities to enter the field of medicine.
- (ii) Orientation Committee (planned yearly orientation).
- (iii) Student Council.

•Brown Medical School:

- (i)SNMA – active member.
- (ii)Musculoskeletal Institute (Student Orthopedic interest group)
 - President, 03.
- (iii)Hand Surgery Preceptorship (Longitudinal Clerkship)

Research: •University of Michigan

- participated in Molecular Biology research project investigating the genes responsible for directing embryonic heart development in Drosophila Melanogaster (Rolf Bodmer, Ph.D.).

•Brown Medical School

- spearheaded prospective randomized study investigating the effects of splinting post A-1 pulley release for Stenosing Tenosynovitis of the digits of the upper extremity (E. Akelman et al.).
- participated in outcome study investigating effects of various co-morbidities on outcome of open and arthroscopic Rotator Cuff repair (A. Green et al.).
- author of 30-page document entitled "Orthopedic Surgeon's Guide to Workman's Compensation."